

Delegates from Mr. Kenneth Kaunda's
United National Independence Party
(280,000 members) and Mr. Harry Nkumbula's African National Congress (400,000) will meet in London today to discuss a common course of action. Sir Roy is violently opposed to Africans getting and elected majority in Northern Rhodesia, but the Colonial Secretary, Mr. Iain Macleod, is insisting on a policy of change.
